Foreword

The year fades from reality into recollections.
The 1967-68 term becomes a series of symbols = emblems,
 tokens,
 signs,
 characteristics =
typical of the year.
Through these symbols we present the La Sierra
Campus of Loma Linda University.

The 1968 METEOR is dedicated to ...

J. CECIL HAUSSLER

Whose classes are made inspiring by his enthusiastic presentations.

Whose desire for individual insight is accented by his occasional, "Are there any worriments?"

Whose concern for student well-being is exceeded only by his devotion to God.

Activities

In the fluid events where individuals mix and cease being alone, where young lady meets young man, and smile begets smile, melting fear and shyness away; people who never were, become.

Faces, surprised, bedazzled, are blended into close friendships with others. Faces never before seen become unforgettable and things done, are.

This social atmosphere spans the realm of the slight, indifferent attitude to the agonized frustration, and pleasure of intense, active participation. It's what each makes of his own atmosphere, relaxed or all-out.

These students begin their long ordeal by picking up their registration packets.

Mark Clements recruits two girls for the men's dorm.

Registration

Among the many activities of University students, registration is one necessary "evil".

Registration is a time of bewilderment and weariness for most of the participating to-be students. With a hassel to get a cleared billing slip, a validated registration permit, and a security clearance, registration finally began. Acquiring the registration materials, students marched up to the platform to get their ID pictures taken.

Brave Ann Gibb goes it alone.

Dr. Lee, school registrar, keeps busy during registration.

Confused students and perplexed advisors counseled and shuffled classes to meet time openings, in a race to secure class cards before the class closed out. Buying breakage tickets and depositing cards for Associated Students, Criterion, and Meteor on the appropriate tables, students reached the registration checkout table, and it was over for the day.

In spite of it all, 1,654 students lived to take classwork on the La Sierra Campus, with a total enrollment of 3,000 at Loma Linda University.

Not so brave Ted Horsley does not go it alone.

Questions like "Are you from Alaska", of "If you're pre-med, will you sign my name game sheet?" began a noisy Get Acquainted Party. Cheers and minor explosions urged the tricycle "Grand Prix" and balloon stomp into confusion. A contest in creating paper dresses and an alphabet game (underclassmen versus upperclassmen) added to the get acquainted atmosphere. A folk trio consisting of Carolyn Davis, Steve Guptill and Gary Hullquist provided the evenings musical entertainment.

Bob Herr Chorale

The Collegiate Chorale, under the talented direction of Robert Herr, presented the first musical program of the school year on September 30. Their repertoire contained a great variety of songs from "Lamentations of Jeremiah" to the American folksong "Shenandoah."

Robert Herr originated the Chorale which was made up of La Sierra College students while he was attending L.S.C. in 1964. Since then it has moved with him into Glendale and is comprised of 30 singers mostly from the Glendale area.

Wedgewood Trio

The Wedgewood Trio presented an energetic and dynamic folk concert of original arrangements and songs from around the world. This concert, held on October 7, was the first of the campus Entertainment Series.

Members of the trio are Bob Summerour, a freshman in the School of Medicine, Don Volmer, a History teacher at Lynwood Academy, and Jerry Hoyle, Youth Minister at the Vallejo Drive Church.

The linking of fingers, the sharing of a small blanket, the fogging of eye-glasses in the mist, a heart unable to overcome a stomach in turmoil. Such were the experiences of those who went on the annual Harbor Cruise on October 14 at Newport.

Under the spawning light of a bright moon over 200 couples embarked in three boats to explore the periphery of Newport Harbor, to take in the sights of the coastline, and to enjoy the fresh sea air and each other.

The event was brought to a close as the couples gathered together and accepted the warmth and satisfaction of hot chocolate and donuts.

The theme of the Sigma Phi Kappa Mother-Daughter Tea on October 22 was "Thank Heaven for Little Girls." The Feature of the evening was a fashion show coordinated by Samples "n" Stuff of Riverside.

Proud mothers and beaming daughters admired the perky paper flowers and large lollipops that decorated the walls of the commons and the tables as the tea progressed through the program and on to a menu of finger sandwiches, cake and punch.

Sports Carnival

The Sports Carnival was the first event of its kind ever held on the La Sierra Campus and was patterned after similar activities at some Midwest Colleges.

The events started at 7:30 with relay races and a balloon burst. During this time captains were chosen for the teams and the captains recruited the most gifted athletes for their teams. The different teams dispersed to different areas of College Hall and participated in activities like badminton, table tennis, volleyball, golf and archery. At each event points were tabulated for the teams. During the same time a series of carnival events was going on in the rear of the auditorium.

Door prizes were given out throughout the evening and at the close punch and cookies were served while the winning team was announced.

L.A. Pops Orchestra

Professor Alfred Walters was the guest soloist of the evening.

The Los Angeles Symphonic Orchestra gave the second presentation in the Campus Entertainment Series on November 5. Under the direction of James K. Guthrie, the orchestra consisted of more than 52 professional musicians from the radio, television, motion picture, and recording industries. Guthrie is presently the conductor of the Riverside Symphony Orchestra.

The light concert was highlighted with "Symphoni Espagnole", featuring the solo violin of Alfred Walters, professor of music on the La Sierra Campus.

Conductor Guthrie and the orchestra give a thrilling performance.

Air Force Band Concert

The Air Force band performs a Christmas number.

Lively numbers are played by the sixteen piece swing band.

On December 6, 1967, the students of the La Sierra Campus were treated to a one hour Christmas concert given by the 523rd Air Force band from March Air Force Base. The Wednesday evening program was sponsored by the ASLSC. Captain James C. Whittenton was the conductor of the 50 piece band. After the band had played a variety of Christmas numbers it split up into the sixteen piece swing band that plays for many of their secular programs.

On November 18 the General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus brought to the campus a colorful program consisting of a variety of songs from the religious to the comical. The high point of the performance, if there be one, was the rousing ending at which time the national dance of the Don Cossacks, the "Kozatchka," was performed.

Pattering Program

Three years ago the Service Corps was instituted. Since that time it has carried on many programs in the community. This year one of the main areas of concentration is in the pattering program. This project is helping Kristen Eicker, who is a brain damaged child. Students are instructed in the "pattering" methods which are used to restore normal co-ordination. Every day the young girl comes to the campus and is put through a vigorous program of exercises and movements. The pattering project has become one of the most popular of the Service Corps projects.

On December 12, the new lighting system for the physical education recreation field became a reality.

Dr. Norval F. Pease, who was president of La Sierra College when the idea for the physical education plant was originated, gave a brief history of the development of the recreation field and then threw the switch for the first official lighting.

A regularly scheduled soccer game was played at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Sabbath School

Danny Skeoch gives a lesson study to some students during Sabbath School.

Songleader Steve Guptill leads out in a rousing song service.

Sabbath School is a meaningful experience to all students who partake of it. Not only can you hear a lesson taught in English, but also in German, Spanish, or French. There is even a discussion seminar that you can attend if you want to become more involved in Sabbath School. All the different Sabbath Schools are directed by the students themselves, which make them all the more interesting.

In College Hall, where the main Sabbath School is held, the lesson study is often given by students that teach small classes. This makes Sabbath School informal and easier to become interested in. Other times, well known speakers from the General Conference, teachers from the departments on this campus, and other guest speakers give stimulating lessons to the students.

This year the discussion seminar, located in the Student Center lounge, is directed by Gary Hanson. Each week he presents a new topic for those attending to discuss. Usually, quite a large number of students attend the discussion seminar.

Sabbath School on the La Sierra Campus is truly diversified and brought to the students in a meaningful way.

Dr. Earl V. Pullias, Professor of Higher Education at the University of Southern California, was guest speaker at the presentation of the Senior Class of 1968.

His address was entitled "A Search for Fundamentals in a Time of Change." Respectively, Dr. Norval Pease and Dr. Alonzo Baker conducted the invocation and scripture reading. Sacred selections were presented by Chamber Singers and the University String Ensemble.

Dr. Alonzo Baker gives the scripture reading.

Commemoration of the American Bill of Rights Day involved a full day of activities. A three-part chapel program began with a play on the life of George Mason, who contributed to the founding of the Bill of Rights, the second part was a short film that showed exactly how the Bill of Rights protects the rights of American citizens, and was preceded by a speech by Dr. Wilfred Airey entitled "What is Happening to Our Freedom Today?"

Col. Stewart of Norton Air Force Base and Col. Fromm, commander of March Air Force Base, were present for the ceremony. A color guard from March Air Force Base opened and closed the program.

Prayer bands were held in Matheson Chapel, and Elder Daniel Cotton led a discussion during dinner on the topic "Adventist Relations to the Draft."

Student Center Sing

Another first this year is the Student Center Sing. Nearly 150 students gather in the Lounge every other Friday night after vespers. Walter Nelson, co-ordinator of the sing, organizes a program of specials and student selections which create a spiritual atmosphere. As the program draws to a close, the students are lead in singing "Into My Heart." Reverently a student offers a prayer of dismissal.

It is the hope of the Student Center Committee that the sing will become a tradition.

Sunday morning, December 3, five carloads of SPAM members were greeted at the gate of La Casa de Esperanza (City of Hope) a private orphanage in Tijuana, Mexico. Their purpose was to provide the homeless children with a Christmas party. The club gathered toys and gifts from local churches and the dorms, and collected donations to buy even more gifts.

Everyone had a gay time as the party progressed from a Christmas story to a short program which included singing. After breaking the pinata, Santa Claus passed out 250 gifts to the excited children.

The annual Sigma Phi Kappa Christmas party was held December 11. Sixteen children from the Riverside Juvenile Hall came to the Commons for an evening of fun and excitement. The 7th and 8th grade choir from Loma Linda presented several songs. Elder Dan Skortz performed magic tricks, and a "Keystone Cops" film was shown.

After the entertainment Santa Claus, alias Viktor Christensen, distributed Christmas presents to the children. Groups of girls took each child and treated them as their own brother or sister by playing games with them or just talking about various things.

Santa and Frosty, better known as Walter Kiralla and Mike Steele, delight the children with Christmas presents.

This year the residents of Sierra Towers held a Christmas party for seven small, underprivileged children. The party was under the direction of Kirby Clendenon who obtained the names of the children, ranging in age from two to fourteen, from the Alvord Unified School District.

The children and their hosts were treated to punch and cookies after Frosty and Santa passed out the presents. A dollar from each room and gifts donated by the Dorcas Society helped make the party a success.

It's not every year that two faculty members are married. On December 12, the La Sierra Church was packed with students, faculty, friends, and relatives eager to wish Mrs. Smith and Mr. Cushman well. Dr. Andrew Nelson, brother of Mrs. Smith, performed the ceremony, and Dr. William Smith, son, escorted her down the aisle. Mrs. Reuban Nelson was matron of honor and Mr. Cushman's son, Lester, was his attendant. The orchestra played before the ceremony and the Chamber Singers gave a special number and prayer response.

Nursing Activities

Nursing students find themselves in a vigorous four semester program. Along with their regular class studies, they do lab work in hospitals. The first year, their clinical experience is conducted at the Corona Community Hospital where they study the fundamentals of nursing. At Paradise Valley Hospital the students study medical surgery and psychiatric nursing. Students continue their study of medical surgery at the White Memorial Medical Center and begin lab work in pediatrics and obstetric nursing. The fourth year is a comprehensive, advanced course covering intensive cases in tuberculosis and psychiatry at Patton State Hospital.

Hong Kong Missionaries

For the fifth consecutive year, two La Sierra students are spending a fascinating year in Hong Kong. This year Tom Dybdahl and Dick Donaldson are immersed in a continuous program of religious and social activities in addition to their responsibilities as full time teachers and chaplains. At the Sam Yuk Middle School they are involved in the practical applications of their theories and Christian experiences.

The expanding enthusiasm of students is represented by the support given to these Puerto Rican schools.

Hiking Club Outings

The Hiking Club is generally recognized as the most active club on campus and this year was no exception. Under the direction of Gordon Phillips, their club president, the members of the Hiking Club enjoyed week-end outings.

The annual week-end trip to the San Jacinto Mountains in February highlights the activities of the year for the Hiking Club. The 30 hikers enjoyed the crisp air and "snowplay" which included tobogganing and numerous snowball fights.

Earlier in the fall, the Hiking Club members spent a week-end at Sequoia National Park and later visited San Geronio where some of them climbed to Dollar Lake and even to the very top of the mountain where they could view the whole San Bernardino Valley.

The Student Center this past year has become more and more a refuge for the student from the humdrum of the weekly Saturday night routine. It offers a haven for the non-attached and the lonely, the bored and the broke, and also serves as an after-date resting place for the brave. On the more lax Saturday nights, the TV room plays host at times to near overflowing crowds, some sitting, some standing, and some restlessly reclining on the cold floor, all watching, through the power of mutual understanding, such programs as "Get Smart" and "Saturday Night at the Movies." Others, wanting a more personal relationship with friends, away from the drone of the TV, try their skill at the more educational games of Rook or Monopoly. Between commercials or between turns in a game, the Snack Bar offers a means of satisfying the hunger and thirst of youth.

Concert Band Tour

Band members prepare for one of their many concerts.

Eugene Nash conducts the band as they play Prelude and Fugue in D minor.

This year the annual band tour took place from February 15-18. There was much excitement in band when Eugene Nash, band conductor, told them that this year the band would be visiting Rio Lindo Academy, Pacific Union College, Lodi Academy, Mountain View Church, and Monterey Bay Academy.

A charter bus took most of the students and a truck was rented to take most of the band instruments.

During the long hours on the bus the students studied for the classes that they were missing or played Rook, which was a major pastime for the long hours. The students were very impressed with the campus of Rio Lindo Academy where the first of three secular concerts was to be given. Many long lost friends were found at PUC where the students associated with their friends in the band. Religious concerts were given at Lodi Academy and Mountain View Church. Last stop was Monterey Bay Academy which is located right next to the ocean. The highlight here was a basketball game between the band members and the MBA alumni. Superior shooting by the band helped to offset the strong rebounding of MBA. LSC triumphed by a 46-40 score. Meanwhile, other members of the band found their way down to the beach where they held their own party by the light of a fire that they built. The exhausted band members slept most of the way home.

Student Week of Devotion

The student week of devotion was held from February 18-23 this year. Bill Hemmerlin, a senior chemistry major, began the week with his topic called "Watch". On Monday evening, Marian Brown, a senior history major, spoke on "First the blade". For Tuesdays chapel Anna Mae Lindegren, a senior German major, spoke on "Come; for all is now ready". Don Sease, a junior sociology major, spoke at Tuesday evenings service. His topic was "Remember now thy Creator". The Wednesday evening talk was given by Helen Lopez, a junior psychology major. Her topic was "I come to give life." "An example of the believers" was the topic of the talk that Mike Conner, a senior speech major, gave during Thursdays chapel. The evening talk was given by Jo Ann Mazat, a senior music major. She spoke on "To know Him." The student week of devotion came to a close as Anders Karlman, a junior psychology major, spoke on "The wise man" during the Friday evening vesper service.

Meier Memorial Chapel

On Sabbath, February 10, 1968, the worship hall in Sierra Towers, the new men's residence hall, was consecrated as the "Fabian A. Meier Memorial Chapel" in honor of the late president of La Sierra College. The official name was conferred in the consecration address given by Dr. William L. Landeen, President Emeritus of La Sierra College. Prior to the service, an oil painting of the late president was hung over the entrance of the worship hall.

Mens Open House

Open house in the men's residence halls is always quite interesting and this year was no different. Many rooms were elaborately decorated with pictures of girls, cars, and what not. Sunday, February 25, was the date of open house and the whole day was used in housecleaning. There was a hum of excitement as the men busily prepared the rooms for the girls to see.

At 6:30 in the evening the dorms were open for public viewing. Visitors filled the small hallways as everyone poked their heads into the rooms to see how life was on the other side of the campus. Hosts were on hand to direct the people to the most interesting spots in the dorms. Refreshments were served later on in front of Sierra Towers, the new high rise men's dorm.

Parking attendants took care of the cars as they arrived at the lodge. A social hour and a buffet dinner took place before the main program began. The 450 guests found their way into the De Silva Auditorium for the entertainment of the evening. The De Silva Auditorium is a theatre in-the-round.

Sharon Steinke and Mike Pettyjohn, duo pianists from Loma Linda University performed show tunes and light popular music.

The last hour of the program was reserved for Clarence Treat, the former lead singer of the New Christy Minstrels. His music enthralled an already captive audience.

Two barbershop quartets, paper games, prizes for the best costumes, Orange Julius eclairs, and creme puffs contributed to a fun-filled evening.

Dorm Worship

Worship is part of the daily life of the dorm residents. As the weeks and months go by, the students became more and more accustomed to the religious atmosphere being created by the school through the deans and their assistants.

On Monday and Wednesday mornings, short talks are given to the residents either by their dean or by their resident assistant. Evening worship is held every night except Wednesday and Saturday.

Because each dean is responsible for a certain number of worship talks, each one tries to make his as interesting as possible and most relevant to the situations being faced by the students.

Students may go to the worship rooms and meditate alone if they desire to do so. Many have done this regularly throughout the year.

Dorm worship can be a meaningful part of college life if the students let it.

SPORTS

The peace and serenity of the academic life of the La Sierra Campus is supplemented by the many and varied extra-curricular sport activities which are made available to the students as a means of recreation or relaxation. Each individual on campus has the opportunity, if he so desires, to break the daily routine of study and rest by taking advantage of the many programs offered. Too often the students and faculty develop an aesthetic appreciation for physical calm and, as one might say, get into an academic rut. The urge to do something decays and the limbs become lean and lack the lustre of the healthy life. To thwart this state of physical apathy, a large variety of sports are offered to allow the individual student to select the activity most geared toward his "speed."

From the AHHHHHA!! of Karate to the extended wheeze of soccer, the list runs. There's the petty POOF!! of badminton, the SCHLAAT!! of volleyball and the PLATT!! of the belly flop. And the heart beat goes on. You can SWOOSH!! down the powdery slopes in winter or SCHLOT!! through the muddy football field. There is agony in both victory and defeat: this is the sport of it, taking all the agony in stride.

David Barr sets up a pass play as his blockers give him good protection.

A good down and out pattern results in this fine reception.

Football

"A" league had a professional tinge to it this year, as evidenced by the team names. Regardless of the seemingly darkness of the fields as the season grew to a close, it was a very exciting period for the teams on the gridiron. No single team had a perfect record, an obvious sign of team co-ordination and team work itself. The season was really fun filled and exciting. This is speaking for many frequent and well planned "touchdown" plays, which presented themselves with just enough occurrence to keep the defense thinking and the spectators cheering, either for making the play work, or for reading the play well and soon enough to stop it. With so much thought and execution going into the fundamental plays and moves of the game, next year can only promise to be as exciting as this one has.

Volleyball has always been recognized as a sport of action and agility. All this and more were shown this year in the women's league of volleyball. The season was one of action and fun, especially with the freak breaks and happenings that set up the wins, losses, and laughs of each game and match.

Strategy is becoming more and more of a factor in winning games rather than the "Just hit it over" attitude. This is good and definitely more enjoyable and exciting to the player who can achieve a satisfaction of a play well done.

Volleyball this year has been a great boost to the getting of the ladies to come out and exercise and feel good by letting off tension with a somewhat revised "spike!"

Mens Soccer

This year, soccer was blessed with the absence of the past present numerous injuries. This left for more and better play. As a sport, soccer is the most taxing on the runners and defenders since they are constantly on the move. Each player must keep his mind alert for a sudden change in plans, and must constantly be on the move so as not to be left behind as the next play develops.

Although the season ended fairly stable as to the teams won and lost records each game was not without its high moments of excitement. It was moments like these, the last second shot around the goalkeeper, the header into the net, and other plays that kept the spectators eyes and limbs following each play and shot.

Why yes—basketball is an organized sport!

When menacing lead scorer Linda "Hot Shot" Ledington's at the line, the opposition trembles.

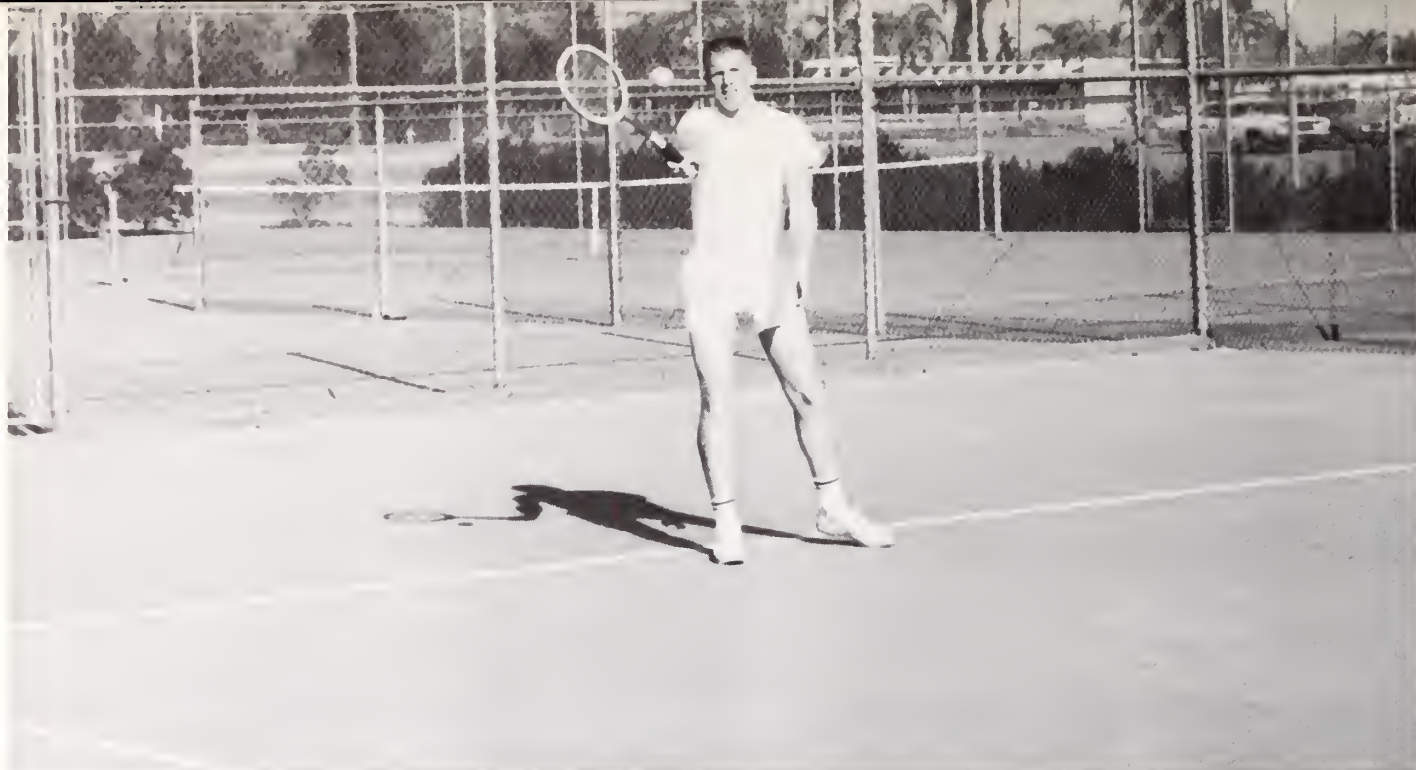

Rules are rules, and hence are there to be broken and/or changed. This is the case for women's basketball. Height is not the ultimate weapon in their league, rather than to be quick and accurate, and to be able to stay in the game without losing any fingernails.

Actually, these are numerous occurrences although not the only happenings in the action.

Very few times can people observe a woman being herself, having fun, enjoying herself, and yet using her mind to outsmart and outmaneuver her opponent.

Girls can be a little bit grabby at times

Jim Mulder, number one ranked player in the school, delivers a forehand lob during a game.

Tennis

The winners played other winners, the losers of their first matches played off.

This was unique because it did give the chance of involvement and participation to more men, which is one of the foundations for the Intramural Program at L.L.U.

Four persons wound up the tournament by having a playoff for each of the two winners brackets. First place was won by Jim Mulder as he outplayed his last opponent, Geoffrey Gardiner, who scored upset victories over some high ranked players. The top space for the consolation winners was grabbed by Jeff Blanch, as his strategy and strokes overwhelmed John Hughson in the final playoff.

Appreciation goes to Mr. Eugene Nash for his co-ordinating efforts and time in preparing this tournament.

Also in the tennis field is the constantly changing and equally challenging tennis ladder. The standings are placed on a chart outside of the tennis courts, and hang on the fence for observation.

This ladder includes many more of the "good" or better players around this area.

Geoffrey Gardiner, the number two player at La Sierra, prepares to backhand a hard driven ball.

Gary Smith gives a backhand drive during one of the match games.

The continuous and every changing ratings provide constant strategy and excitement, and really keep the courts busy, along with the welcome spectators and tennis players who play there even if not in the ladder program.

This season basketball was a bit different from the past years.

Overall, the games were clean, exciting, some very close in score, and all played with a determination to perform well, fair, and hopefully to win.

The problem this year was the forfeit. Too many games were won by one team because the other couldn't raise enough of their teammates to make up a five man squad. This was a bad situation, but the good did come out of it.

Whenever a game was lost through a forfeit, both teams still played. They found some other men to play, and they went right ahead, not concerned with winning at first, but to have a great time playing and exercising. This speaks for the spirit of the intramural program on our campus.

Of the six teams participating, there was only one forfeited game. Because of the mixed company, it is needless to say that the fun, enthusiasm, cooperation, and sportsmanship were very good. When it comes to coed games, the gentlemen are gentlemen and the ladies get their way.

Despite the lighting and lack of observational facilities for the officials, everyone involved had a great time. Skill and excitement were present, always true where LSC students are present, and the injuries were held down to one sprained thumb and a ruptured blood vessel.

George Clarke and his opponent both go to the mat.

Judo

Students from the La Sierra Campus have been exercising their skill and Christianity through Judo. This art of self-defense, now being taught on this campus, has several other non-Adventist Dojos (meeting places) throughout the Inland Empire. As field trips and for testing the student's skill, Mr. Richard Song, third degree black belt, American Jujitsu Institute, second degree black belt, Kodokan, has been taking his classes to the Sheais (tournaments) to enter and put to knowledge to work. The students are all males, and enter two events. One, the team match, which consists of 5 men from each organization comprising a team to go against the other teams. On February 29, 1968, the La Sierra group brought the team trophy to this campus. It will stay on this campus until they lose it to one of the other Dojos. Second is the individual tournament, where each entrant competes for himself as Inland Empire Champion. On two previous dates, Tom Peterson came home with 2 first place trophies.

Womens Soccer

The only complaint for the women's soccer this season was the lack of games. Well, there were two teams, and three games, and someone had to win, unless there would have been a two way tie for first among a group of two teams.

For once, Snoopy finally won, despite the knee knocks and tired muscles that presented themselves. The girls that played really enjoyed it, and said of the games, "There just weren't enough of them". Next year we can really expect the turnout of the ladies, to see if Snoopy can do it again.

Water Polo

Mr. Schneider, co-ordinator of the water polo intramurals, was very pleased over the total performance of all teams. Once more, a Christian experience was present at each game, with strong efforts to score, and vigorous swimming to obtain the ball and score the goal. Proof of the equalness of the teams was shown by the standings at the end of the season, and the fact that two of the games went into double overtime, one of them winding up in a sudden death triple overtime. This has been a great season for water polo, and it is hoped that this performance is a format of excitement and endurance to come.

Outstanding individual performances were given in ball handling and goal making by Ken Hicks, of the Barracudas, Bruce Anderson, of the Eels, and Richard Duke, of the Sharks.

ORGANIZATIONS

INVOLVEMENT has been the key factor in the success of the ASLSC this year. The Associated Students of La Sierra Campus is an organization composed of an assortment of young men, young ladies, faculty and staff, all cooperating together to develop the physical, mental, social, and spiritual life of each other and the community which they serve.

A large assortment of clubs and organizations allowed the student to serve in many different capacities. Musical talents could be developed through participation in the band or choir; horseback riding, scuba, hiking, flying, and many other forms of outdoor recreation were available to the students; academic and ethnic interests could be shared through the many language and departmental clubs; and the Sabbath School and church related organizations gave each student the means by which to know God better.

All have a part to play in life, a duty to themselves, others, and to God. Through the many and varied functions of the ASLSC it is hoped that this student involvement will help erase the apathy that is too often found in too many.

ASLSC Officers

The ASLSC officers serve both the faculty and students in many ways. It is their duty to establish a line of communication between the administrative hierarchy and the students.

The President of the ASLSC, D.J. Hindman, acts as the presiding officer of the ASLSC General Assembly (alias townhall) and serves as chairman of the Student-Faculty Council.

Paul Meier, Vice President, assumed the duties of general supervisor of the campus publications, the Social Activities director, the Spiritual Affairs director, the Student Center director, and the other appointed officers.

As ASLSC Secretary, Linda McCabe has been caretaker of the official correspondence for the ASLSC and also responsible for the Student Association calendar of activities.

The Sergeant-at-arms of the ASLSC is responsible for maintaining order at all official school assemblies. This office is held by Joedy Melashenko this year.

Dick Hebbel
Treasurer

Linda McCabe
Secretary

Patti Mayberry, Social Activities director, aided by Gwen Lancaster, Director of Publicity, supervised the ASLSC social functions throughout the year. Also on the ASLSC executive staff for the past school year was Bud Steen, President of the Collegiate Christian League, whose job it was to direct and co-ordinate all student sponsored religious programs. Richard Hergert, Director of the Service Corps, led his organization to a very prosperous year. It was the duty of Don Goley, Parliamentarian, to maintain proper order during townhall and other official assemblies.

The $9.50 that is paid by the students each semester into the ASLSC treasury has been handled by Dick Hebbel, the ASLSC Treasurer. The funds for the three ASLSC publications, the CRITERION, the METEOR, and the INSIDE DOPE, are distributed through his office.

Rick Cales is the editor of the CRITERION this year, which is better known as the "critter". Through the campus newspaper the students voice their opinions and read about the current events taking place. The METEOR is the school yearbook, and is edited this year by Francis Woo, Jr. Through him and his staff the memories of the school year are gathered together under a cover, and brought before the students at the close of the school year.

Delia Perez edited this year's INSIDE DOPE, which is a directory of the students attending school here.

The Inside Dope is without doubt the school's most prized publication in regard to the social unity of the campus. Through an abundance of artistically posed pictures, students are able to get to know each other—name, rank, and serial number—too often, sadly enough, without the honor of personal confrontation. Delia Perez edited this year's "Wishing Book," hoping in some way to alleviate the problem of non-acquaintance on campus. And so, in the minds of many young lovers, the problem develops:

What do you mean "smile"?

Which is of nobler virtue—

 Or not to ask so to feel

Criterion

Yes, friends, there have been many changes in this year's "Criter." For example, there was the increase in the number of pages from four to six, there was a series of essays on "The Adventist Dilemma," and an increase in the use of off campus news sources which enabled the student to keep abreast of current fashion and political trends.

Under the crafty and controversial editorial pen of Rick Cales, a closely related staff of openminded writers and associate editors strived to bring to the La Sierra Campus a variety in pertinent campus news, ranging from the bumbling antics of the Security Force to the burning of the Criterion by some medical students on the Loma Linda Campus.

The Criterion this past year tried very hard to be the "voice of the students." It put before the students a specific standard of judgement in hope of living up to the meaning in its name, and the student body, by their acceptance or rejection of that "critter" either in whole or in part, have made the paper what it is.

Meteor

Long and weary nights, deadlines that come and go before they are discovered, and spontaneous creativity marked the labors of giving birth to this year's Meteor.

This "overflow of powerful feeling" became a reality only after a period of uncertainty at the beginning of the year when it was able to retain its separation from its sister publication on the Loma Linda Campus.

Under the direction of Francis Woo, an assorted staff of personnel have assembled many of the impressive happenings of the year that has been.

Because the function of a yearbook is not to show merely who attended the school or what happened, but to identify what happened with the people it happened to, that portion of the Meteor concerned with student activities and functions has been expanded this year and placed in the opening section of the annual.

both important and insignificant little moments, all of which in some way add to the experience of the collegiate life.

Like the rebirth of the mythothis year's Meteor grew from an

the year that, if nothing else, tried so very hard to be what it should.

CCL officers: Bud Steen, president; Don Steinert, treasurer; Marian Brown, secretary; Susan Haughey, publicity; Roland Shorter, general vice president; Stan Aufdemberg, mission project director.

The Collegiate Christian League has become very active in "Share Your Faith" activities. Program teams, under the direction of John Robertson, have put on programs throughout California and Arizona. There have also been branch Sabbath schools and singing bands in rest homes.

Moments of Meditation headed by Jo Ann Mazat was again held on Wednesday evenings. Friday night vespers, directed by Joan Hoatson, were varied. The meetings consisted of The Voice of Prophecy, guest speakers, The King's Men, the Glendale Academy Chorale, and The King's Heralds.

For the first time, Campus Crusade for Christ became active on the La Sierra Campus.

The CCL also had a mountain retreat over one Sabbath and sponsored a canoe trip on the Colorado River during Spring vacation.

Service Corps

Service Corps officers: Robert Sage, club co-ordinator; Milton Kent, club co-ordinator; Marilyn Hergert, secretary; Richard Hergert, president.

The Service Corps is an organization designed for the purpose of aiding the community in various service projects. The corps draws programs from the clubs on campus and presents them in and around the community. Among the many other activities of the corps members are sponsoring the patterning program, and taking food baskets to people in need. This year, club members took students from the California School for the Deaf to a farm and on several beach parties. They also sponsored a program which went to the Boys Republic in Chino, and a fashion show to Juvenile Hall for girls.

Sabbath School

Sabbath school officers for first semester are: Charlotte Sample, associate superintendent; John Robertson, superintendent; Chare Noggle, associate superintendent.

Sabbath school officers for second semester are: Stan Aufdemberg, superintendent; Carolyn Fagal, associate superintendent; Robert Villanueva, associate superintendent; Marcia Meyers, associate superintendent.

Janet Dyer with her camera stands on the Italian steamship "Aurelia".

Beverly Robbins, Julie Aitken, Peggy Serns, and Laureen Buller do part of their five hours of free labor.

La Sierra students taking French III include Sylvia Diaz, Jeanne Davidson, Terry Milliken, Julie Aitken, Beverly Robbins, Joan Sanderson, and Peggy Serns.

Members of the ACA group pose for a picture in the parlor of the girls dorm. Those standing are Joan Sanderson, Julie Aitken, Jeanne Davidson, Terry Milliken, Beverly Robbins, and Peggy Serns. Those sitting are Marianne Gibson, Linda King, Jan Dyer, Sylvia Diaz, and Linda Sanderson.

Mrs. Magi carves the Thanksgiving turkey while Joan Sanderson whips the cream for the pumpkin pie.

Collonge

One of the three colleges under the "Year Abroad" program is the Seminaire Adventiste du Saleve, at Collonge-sous-Saleve, France. The beautiful campus situated between the Jura Mountains and the Swiss Alps provides a scenic spot for a school. With Geneva within walking distance, students find links with other parts of France, Switzerland, and Europe.

Diane Macaulay relaxes in a field near Darmstadt.

Dr. and Mrs. Magi, the ACA sponsors this year, relax after a long hike up a mountain overlooking Zermatt, Switzerland, the home of the Matterhorn.

Darmstadt

Seminar Marienhoehe, at Darmstadt, Germany is another college participating in the adventist Colleges Abroad program. This campus, which is near Frankfort, is situated in the Rhine River Valley. German majors aren't the only ones who can enjoy a year at Darmstadt. The historical and cultural aspects as well as the travel opportunities are open to any interested student.

A beautiful winter night at Seminar Marienhoehe.

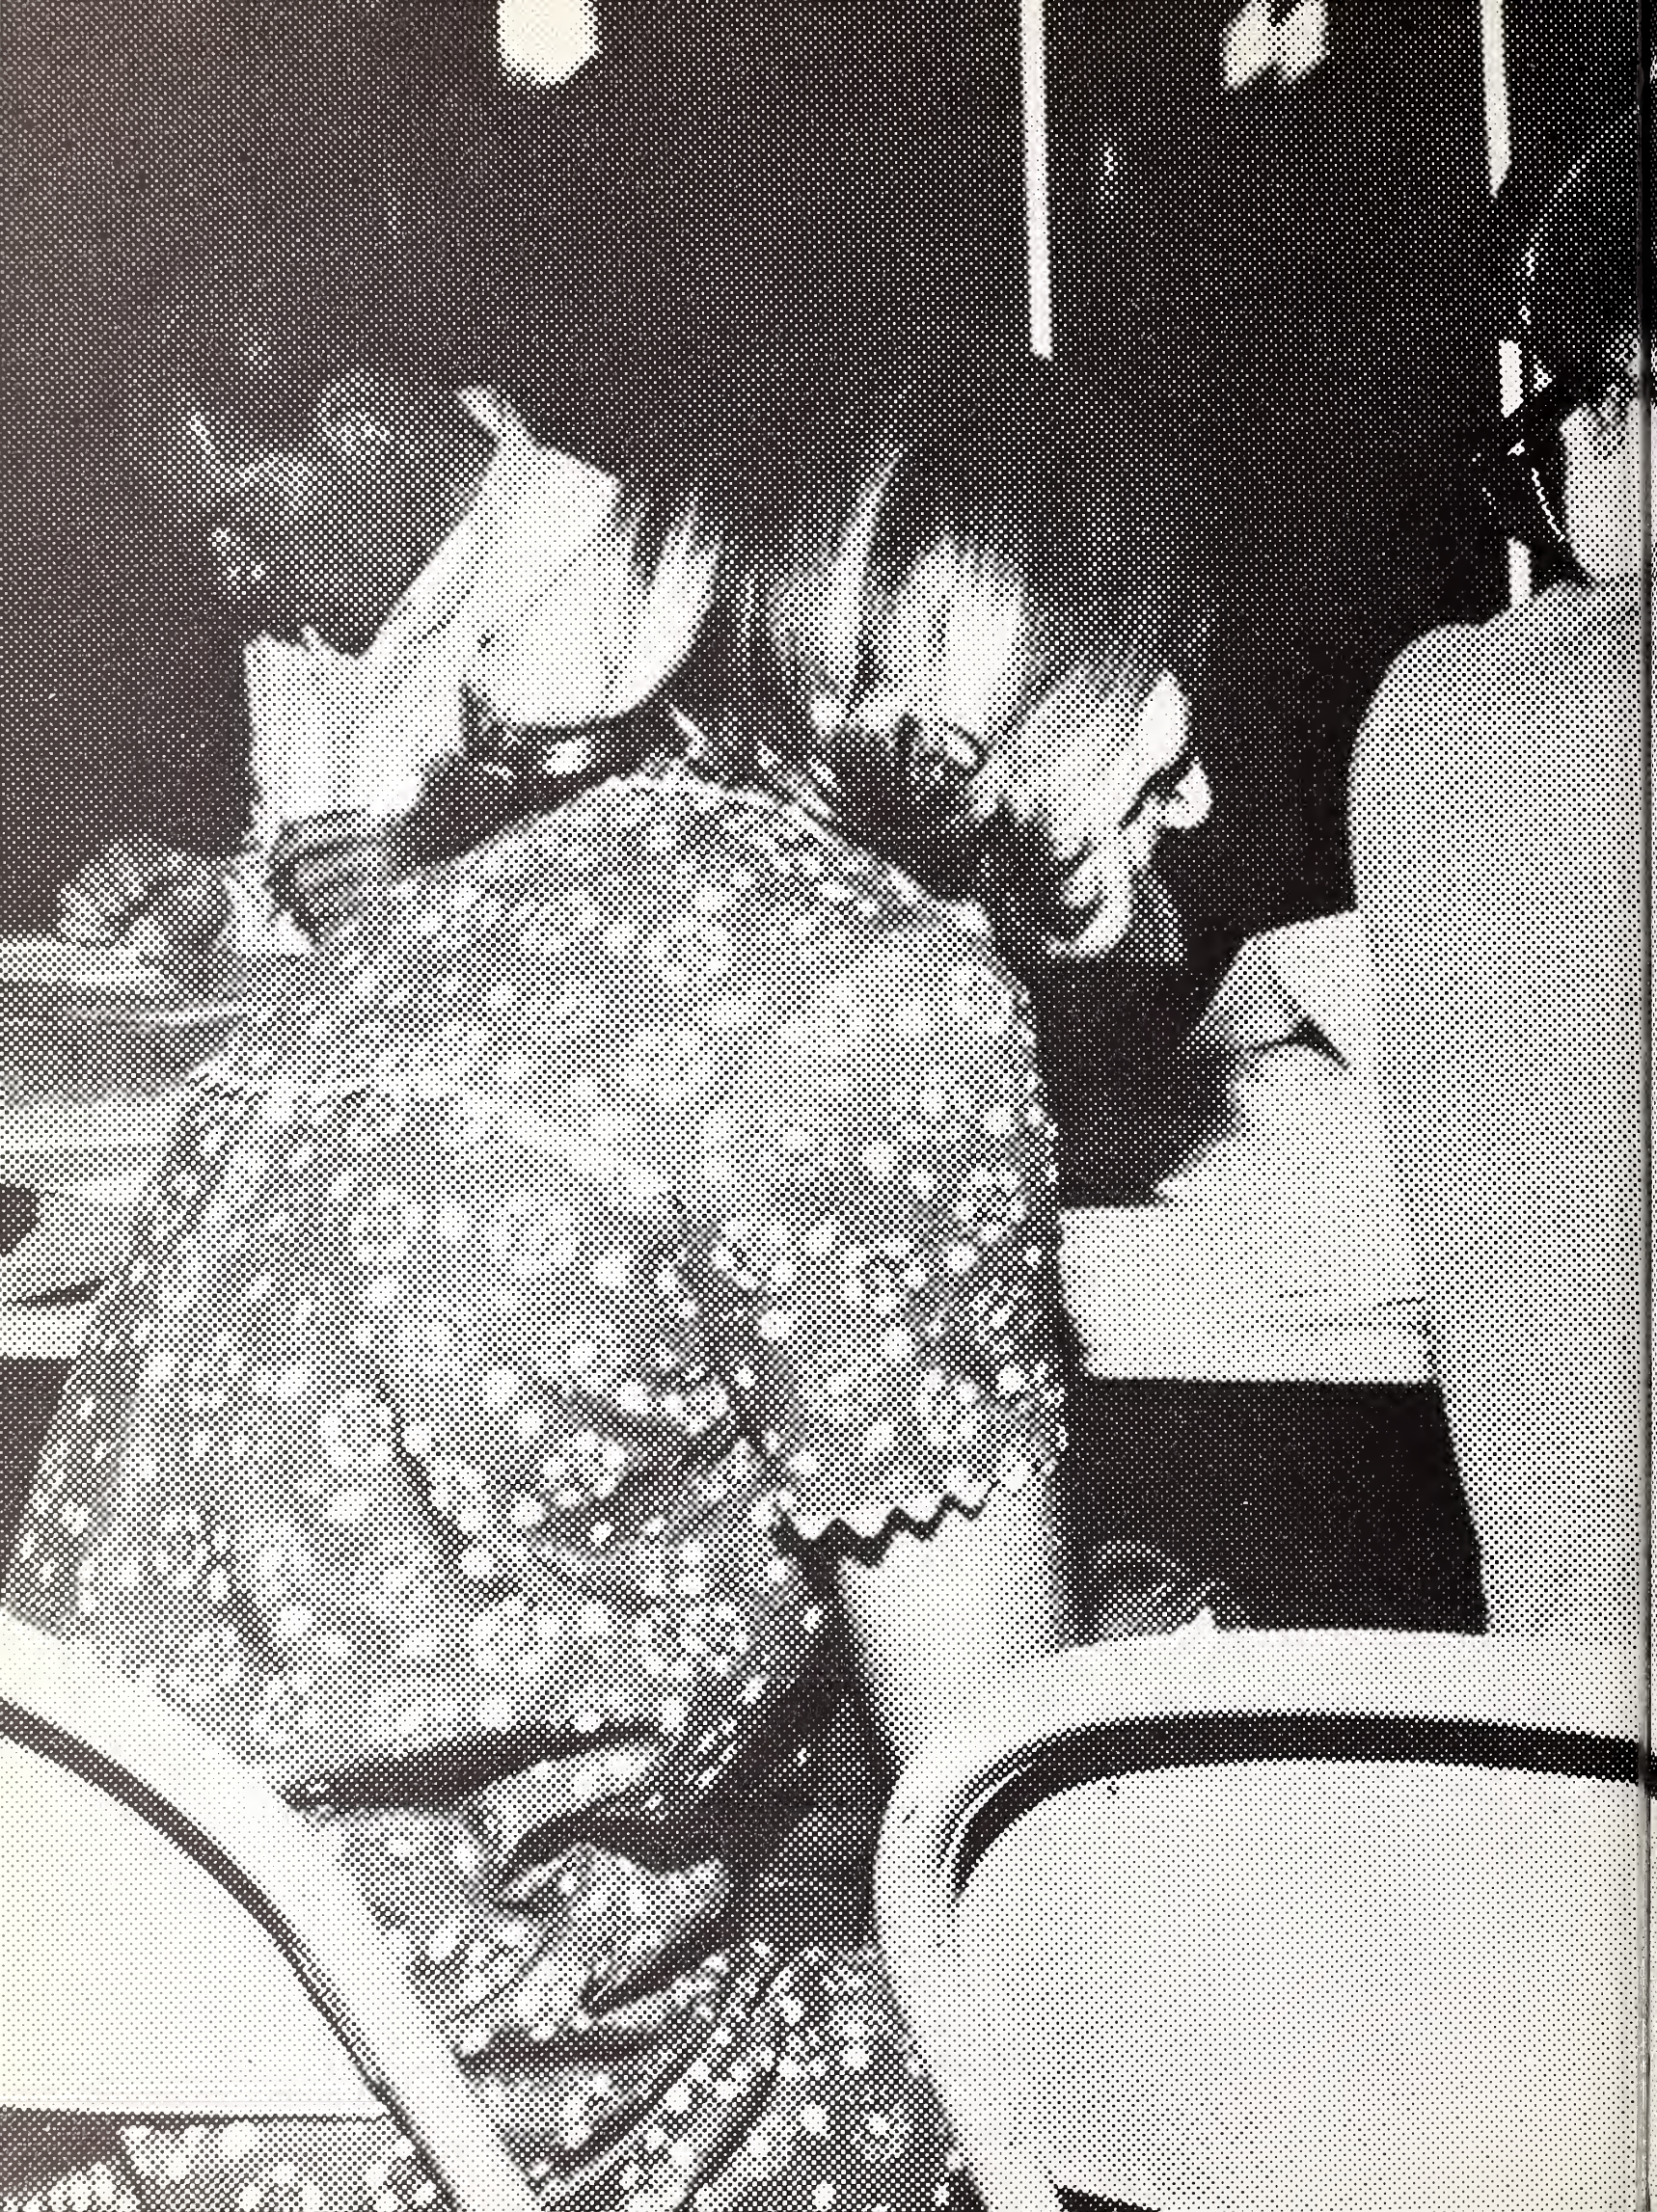

The gardeners Edgar Vyhmeister, Gordon Adams, and Jim Dexter pose in their mod work clothes.

Edgar Vyhmeister and Jim Dexter find the snow a little too much for their Volkswagen.

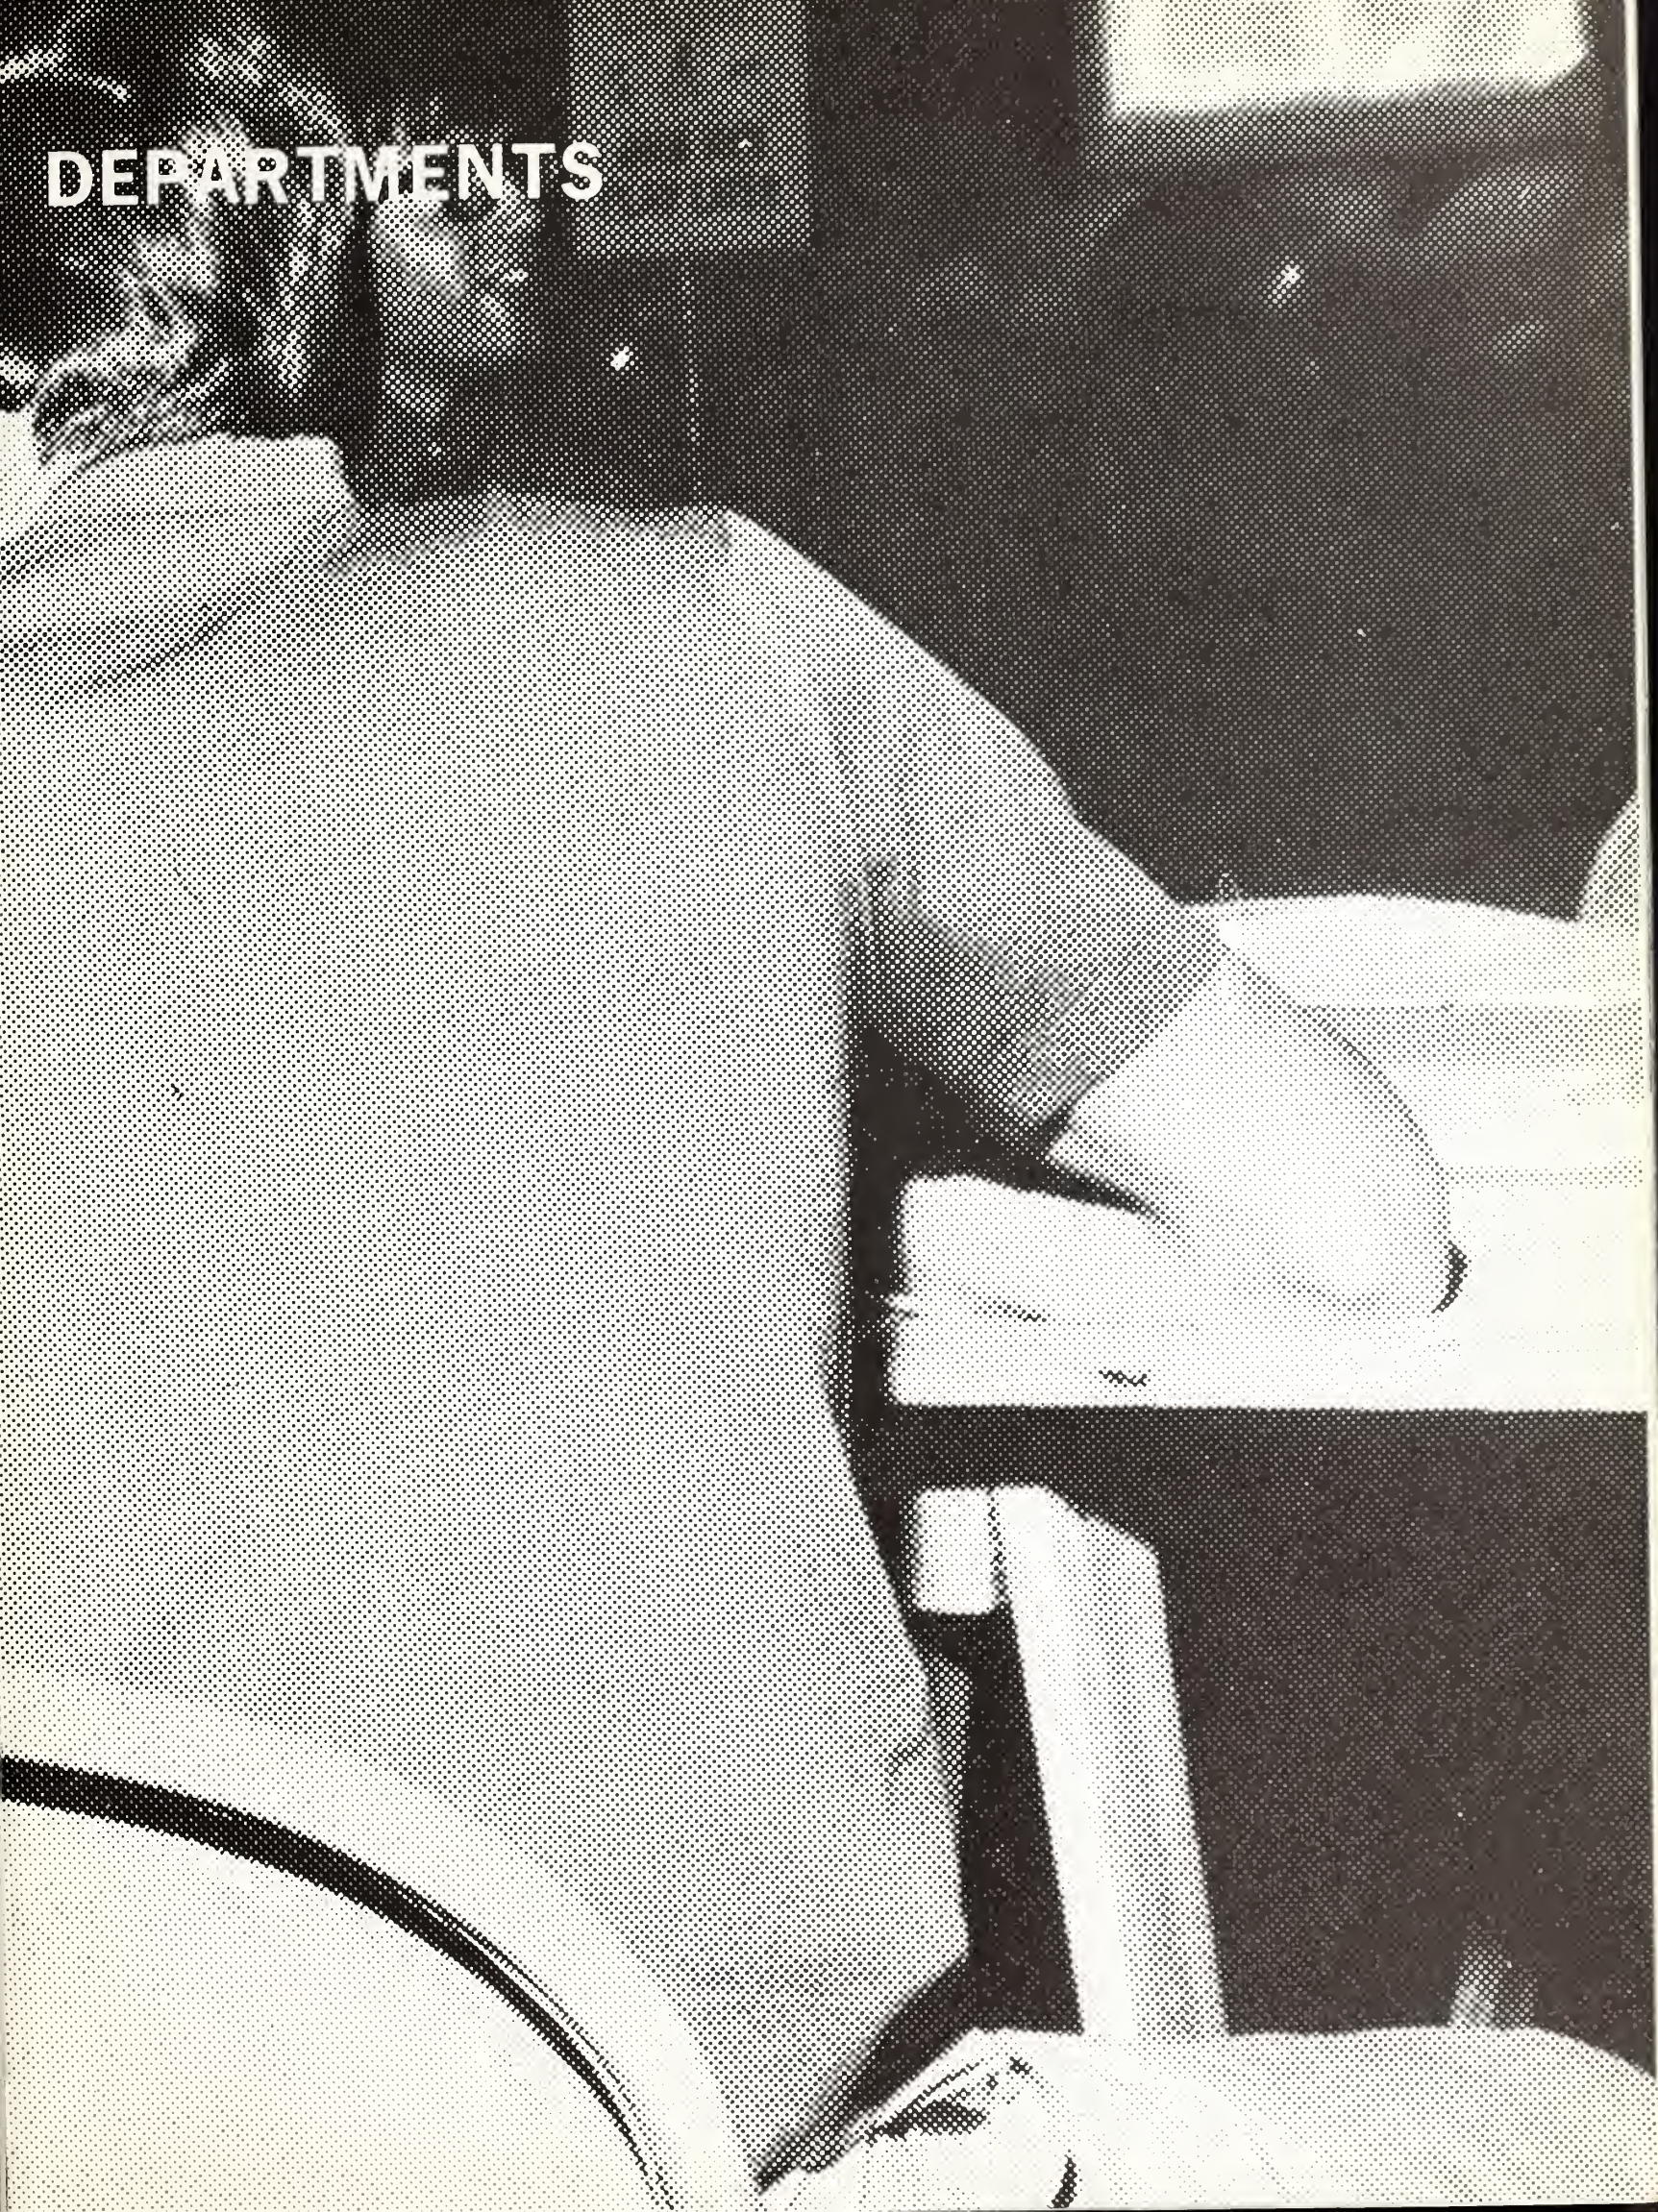

"The Well" is a landmark in Seminar Marienhohe.

Deans

Richard T. Orrison, B.S.
Dean of Men

Vivian Smith Cushman, M.A.
Dean of Women

Dean Orrison has the distinct privilege of being the first dean of the new high-rise dormitory by the name of Sierra Towers. The seven-story building houses 250 men with 40 to 50 on each floor and a resident assistant's suite.

Mrs. Cushman has been dean of Angwin since 1963. Even with all her obligations she still finds time to chat with her girls. A sparkling "Hi" makes her more than just a dean.

Deans

Laurene Jenkins, B. A.
Assistant Dean of Women

O. Raymond Shreve, B.A.
Assistant Dean of Men

Lyle Botimer, B.A.
Assistant Dean of Men

Ruth Maschmeyer
Assistant Dean of Women

The words supervisor, parent, or counselor are synonyms for dean.

Although singular in tense, it is very plural in reality. Each phase of a deans work involves a day and night commitment to parents, the school, and most of all, the students.

Paul Meier
Assistant Dean of Men

Marilyn R. Moon, B.A.
Assistant Dean of Women

Agriculture

Lee A. Davis, M.S.
Assistant Professor

John E. Carr, M.S.
Associate Professor

Students interested in majoring in Agriculture
have a choice of three available fields. These are in Plant
Production, livestock Production, and General Agriculture.

A 498 acre farm is one of the many facilities where students may receive practical experience in Agriculture, poultry, and dairy activities.

Art

Students of the Art Department entered a cover design contest sponsored by the Pacific Press Publishing Association. A series of contemporary covers that will appeal primarily to college age students were being created for paperback editions of the Conflict Series.

Herschel Hughes, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Mrs. Chloe Sofsky is working on a set of five stained glass windows for the Mountain View youth chapel. Mr. Herschel Hughes, creating illustrations for childrens books, also exhibited a one man art show in the International Gallery of Fine Arts in Riverside and is taking graduate studies at Claremont College.

A.S. Wriner, nationally and internationally known for his oil painting and metal sculpture, was one of the guest exhibitors in the Art Gallery.

Gerald E. Snow, M.A.
Instructor

Business

Glee H. King, M.A.
Associate Professor

Richard C. Larson, M.A.
Assistant Professor

The newest member to the Business Department is Mr. William Jay Key, who received a M.B.A. at Washington State University, and who teaches primarily in the quantitative areas. Miss Barbara Powers, Mr. Paul Rosburg, Mr. Ray Wagner and Attorney Douglas Welebir are on the staff as part-time teachers in their specific fields.

A Data Processing Center is equipped with electronic computers to do business simulations and business statistics as practice for students enrolled in the Data Processing Class.

Business

The Department offers an A.A. in Stenography, a B.A. in Business Administration, Accounting, Secretarial Administration, and Business Education with graduate study in Business Education.

The 190 students enrolled in the Business Department may belong to the Collegiate Business Club which sponsored a trip to the Los Angeles Stock Exchange as one of its activities.

Richard B. Lewis, Ph. D.
Professor

Marilyn Teele, M. Ed
Assistant Professor

To those who were interested, Dr. Margaret Palmer put forth the modern-day approach to grammar in her new class on Transformational Generative Grammar. Changes and new innovations are continually being made within the department to expand and improve the program on both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

English

Patricia Jenkins Rose, B.A.
Instructor

Mrs. Patricia Rose's English 7 and 8 classes offer a new approach to the teaching of composition by having the students do extensive reading. The assumption is that reading can make better writers.

Delmer Davis, M.A.
Assistant Professor

New to the staff this year is Dr. Delmer Davis who received his Ph. D. at the University of Colorado. Mrs. Marilyn Teele is working on her doctorate at the University of Denver.

Health and Physical Education

Robert K. Sneider, B.S.
Associate Professor

William J. Napier, M.S.
Associate Professor

A number of teachers in specialized areas accent the regular staff of the Health and Physical Education Department. Mr. Richard Song, a fourth degree black belt directs several judo classes. Mr. Ervin Mateer instructs scuba, and Mr. Don Bieber teaches skiing, intermediate swimming and soccer. Mrs. Joyce Dick and Mr. Ed Taylor conduct extension classes in human performance—maintenance—in the community. Mr. Walter Lancaster and Mr. David Walters, graduate assistants, aid in the areas of scuba and water polo.

Health and Physical Education

Walter Hamerslough, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Helen I. Weismeyer, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Surfing and Sailing are among the possibilities for new classes this coming year. For use in Kinesiology and Physiology of Exercise, the department purchased a Ergometer.

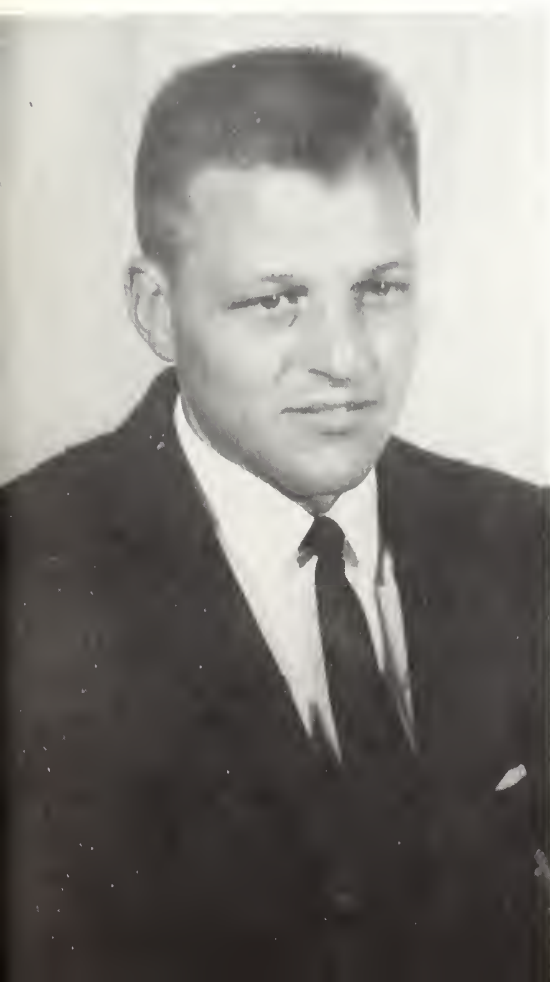

As well as the Heprec Club, the department promotes intramurals with the Loma Linda Campus such as the Flagball Festival held on November 12.

Degrees are given in Physical Education, Health and Physical Education, and Physical Education and Recreation.

Eugene Nash, M. Mus.
Assistant Professor

Marion Pritchard, B.S.
Instructor

Viktor Christensen, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Frederick G. Hoyt, Ph.D.
Professor

Aside from their classroom duties several of the teachers are engaged in outside work. Dr. Ross has just completed the first in a series of papers for Research Studies Magazine. The latest book of Dr. Baker, entitled Religion in Russia Today has just been published. Dr. Landeen is nearing completion on his book dealing with the reformation. At present Dr. Hoyt is engaged in research on relations between the Philippines and America during and after the Spanish-American War. This past summer Dr. Baker sponsored a tour through Russia and the Middle-East and will lead another tour through the Far East in the summer of 1968.

William Landeen, Ph. D.
LL.D., Professor

Wilfred J. Airey, Ph.D.
Professor

History and Political Science

Walter C. Mackett, Ph.D.
Professor

Alonzo L. Baker, Ph.D.
Professor

Gary M. Ross, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor

One club on campus is sponsored by the History Department—the Jurisprudence Club with Dr. Airey as advisor. This club invites speakers from the surrounding areas to talk to those students interested in Law as a career or the present day political situation. Also, the Jurisprudence Club sponsors debates between the faculty members of the History Department. Last year Dr. Baker and Dr. Airey debated over Republican chances of gaining the presidency in 1968. This year Dr. Hoyt and Dr. Baker debated U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

Home Economics

Second semester the Home Economics Department. moved into their new building. It has seven laboratories; Foods, Clothing, Millinery, Textiles, Child Development, Home Furnishings, and Animal Nutrition. The Home Economics Club sold 300 cookbooks to purchase a Corningware "Counter That Cooks" for the new Food Laboratory. In addition to these labs, the new building provides seminar and classrooms for the 66 Home Ec. majors and those students taking general studies courses.

Yvonne Pasher Sonneland, M.H.E.
Assistant Professor

Mary P. Byers, M.S.
Associate Professor

Dinah Baker, M.S.
Instructor

Shirley Moore, Ph.D.
Associate Professor

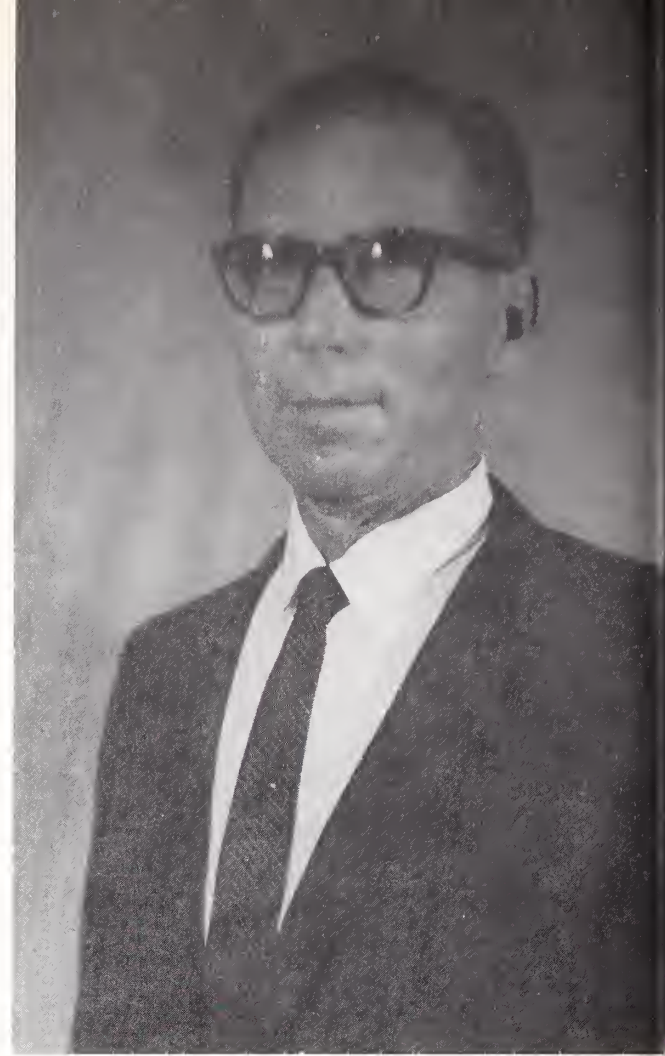

Mrs. Dinah Baker joined the department this year. She received her M.S. from Oregon State University in the area of Food and Nutrition. Mrs. Barbara Larson, graduate assistant, Mrs. Wynelle McCorkle, and Mrs. Kay Kuzma are part time members of the teaching staff.

Besides offering a B.S. and M.A. the department has added a new two year Associates of Arts program in Quantity Food Production.

Industrial Education

Degrees from the Industrial Education Department are given in the areas of building construction and Industrial Education in the secondary schools. These programs prepare students for professional positions in wood and metal construction as well as the teaching field.

J.J. Walcker, M. Ed.
Associate Professor

Lester Hoover
Instructor

Classes in welding are offered for the first time this year. Photography continues with Frank Barrows as the instructor.

An Industrial Education Club is part of the activities of the 25 majors in the department.

Mathematics

Hilmer W. Besel, M.A.
Associate Professor

A wall to wall, ceiling to floor chalkboard is a feature unique to the Math Department.

The grey chalkboard also functions as a screen for the overhead projector and new visual materials recently purchased by the department. Also new is an I.B.M. Discotype which is a systems pack used to work problems on a computer. It is a storage disc for digital computer programs and data employed in mainly two courses which are specifically geared for it.

Geoffrey Jones, M.S., M.A.
Assistant Professor

Geoffrey Jones received a M.A., M.S. and is presently working on his dissertation towards a Ph.D. in Mathematics.

Paul Yahiku, who has Ph.D. in Bio-statistics from U.C.L.A. and Ted Smith, a mathematician from the Naval Weapons Laboratory, assist in the department on a part time basis.

Modern Languages

Margarete Ambs Hilts, Ph.D.
Professor

Edward W. Ney, Ph.D.
Professor

Mrs. Hilda Mission, Mr. Rudolf Hircshmann, Mr. Pierre Ramseier, Miss Gilda Koehl, Mr. John Alfke, Dr. Linsey Thomas, and Dr. Margaret Palmer add to the staff by teaching a variety of different languages. Dr. Kaljo Magi is now on leave at Collonge, France.

Fernando F. Salcedo, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Erling S. Andersson, B.A.
Instructor

Mr. Erling S. Andersson and Mr. Fernando F. Salcedo are two new teachers in the Modern Languages Department.

Mr. Andersson has completed a years work toward his doctorate degree and is presently continuing his study.

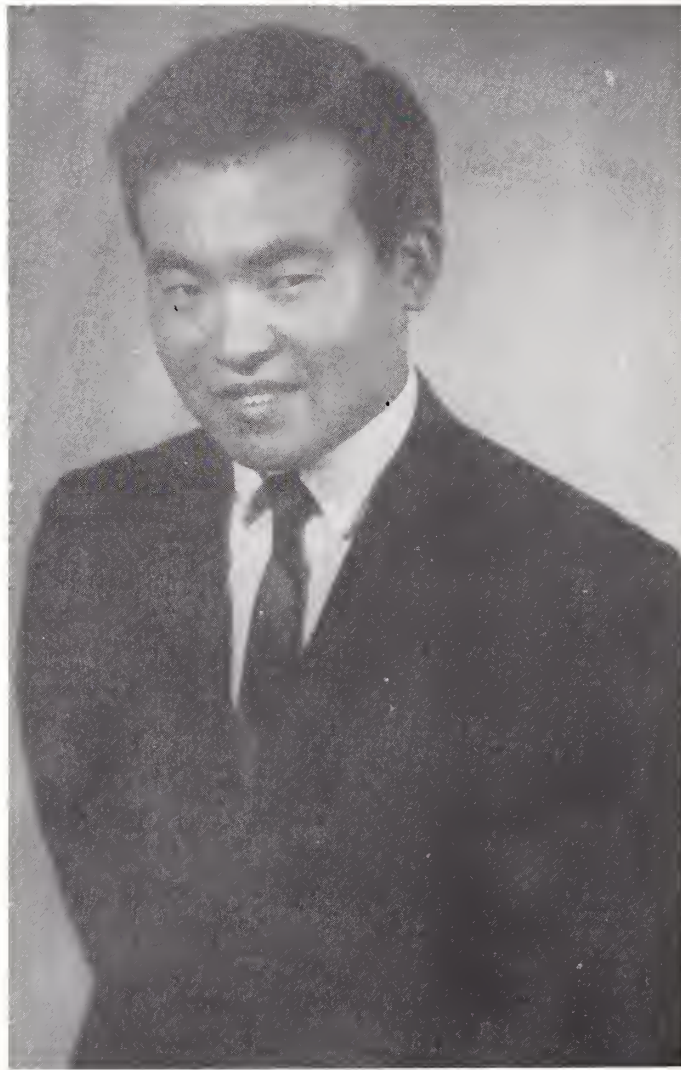

Modern Languages

The Modern Languages Department has formed a liaison with academy language teachers in an effort to articulate language classes from elementary to college level in a smooth progression. It also sponsors Gamma Tau which is a chapter of Alfa Mu Gamma, a national honor society.

A language laboratory is operated which sends out eight different programs at a time, accommodates 36 people, and maintains tapes for classes in Spanish, German, Russian, French, Greek, and Japanese.

Derald W. Rochat, B.A.
Instructor

Raul M. Hayasaka, B.A.
Instructor

Perry Beach, Ph.D.
Professor

Music

Two contract teachers are employed in the Music Department. Mr. E.I. Masten instructs in the woodwind section, and Mr. C. Bruce Tomlinson teaches cello and is a member of the String Ensemble.

Alfred Walters, M.Mus.
Professor

Harold B. Hannum, M.Mus.
Professor

Music

Along with their teaching, many of the instructors in the Music Department are working on other projects. Dr. Perry Beach has been commissioned to write a Cantata on the Second Advent for a music festival to be held in Europe in 1969. Miss Joann Robbins is studying for her D.M.A. in Performance in Voice and a Social Psychology minor at U.S.C. Next year Mr. Don Vaughn will have completed his doctorate in Organ Literature and will join the staff. Mrs. Marjorie Ziprick is doing work on her doctorate from U.C.R.

Assistant Professor

Marjorie Ziprick, M. Mus.
Instructor

Nursing

A five semester nursing program leading to an Associate of Arts Degree is offered on the La Sierra Campus with two semesters of work on the campuses of Paradise Valley Hospital and White Memorial Medical Center. The degree makes students eligible for the State of California examinations towards an R. N.

A four year course is also offered for those wishing a B.S. An approximate 170 students were enrolled in nursing this year.

M. Ruth Sanders, M.A.
Associate Professor

Julia Pearce, M.S.
Assistant Professor

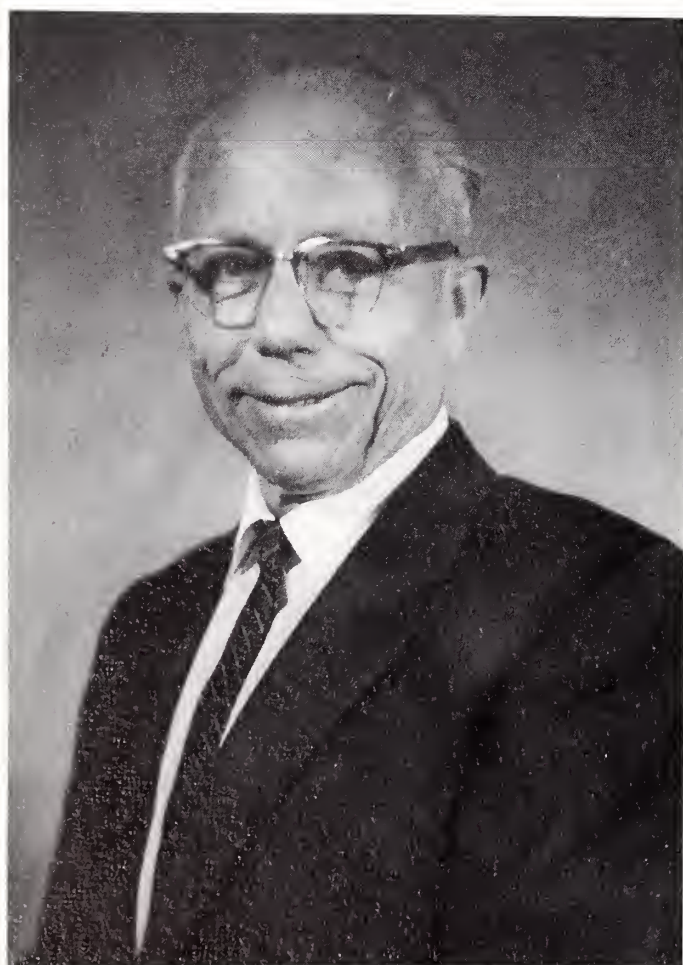

Verda E. Foster, B.S.
Instructor

Physics

Gordon Phillips and Frank Hartzler, graduate assistants, add to the Physics Department by teaching Physical Science and College Physics. Both are working toward their Masters Degree in Physics.

Lewis C. Thompson Ph.D.
Associate Professor

Lester H. Cushman, M.A.
Professor

A research Spectrograph, on loan from Texas A&M University, aids students in undergraduate and graduate research. A Milling Machine, Tool and Surface Grinder, and Power Hack Saw serve to complete the physics machine shop.

The Loma Linda University chapter of Sigma Pi Sigma, a physics honor society, is sponsored by the department with the officers handling club activities.

Franklin R. Hartzler, B.S.
Instructor

James W. Riggs, Ph.D.
Professor

Psychology

In its second year of operation, the experimental psychology laboratory is used as a demonstration laboratory for General Psychology. It also functions as an experimental laboratory complete with sowbugs and rats.

Stanley Bull, Ph.D.
Professor

Maybel Jensen, M.A.
Professor

Peter G. Strutz, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor

Shirou Kunihiro, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor

Helen Strutz, M.A.
Instructor

Shirou Kunihiro is new to the Psychology Department this year. He graduated from Stanford with a Ph.D in psychology.

New classes such as Experimental Psychology and Theories of Learning have been added to the department curriculum.

Religion

The Religion Department offers a B.A. in Theology, Religion, and Biblical Languages.

A highlight for the Koinonia Club, which is the ministerial student club, was the inspiring weekend retreat held at Pine Springs.

Norval F. Pease, Ph.D.

Robert L. Osmunson, M.A.
Assistant Professor

Harold E. Fagal, B.D.
Assistant Professor

Andrew N. Nelson, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor

Royal Sage, B.D.
Associate Professor

Religion

An interesting side light for Theology students is the chance to extern in surrounding churches. Although it is not required, the program offers valuable experience in the field by enabling students to work directly with ministers.

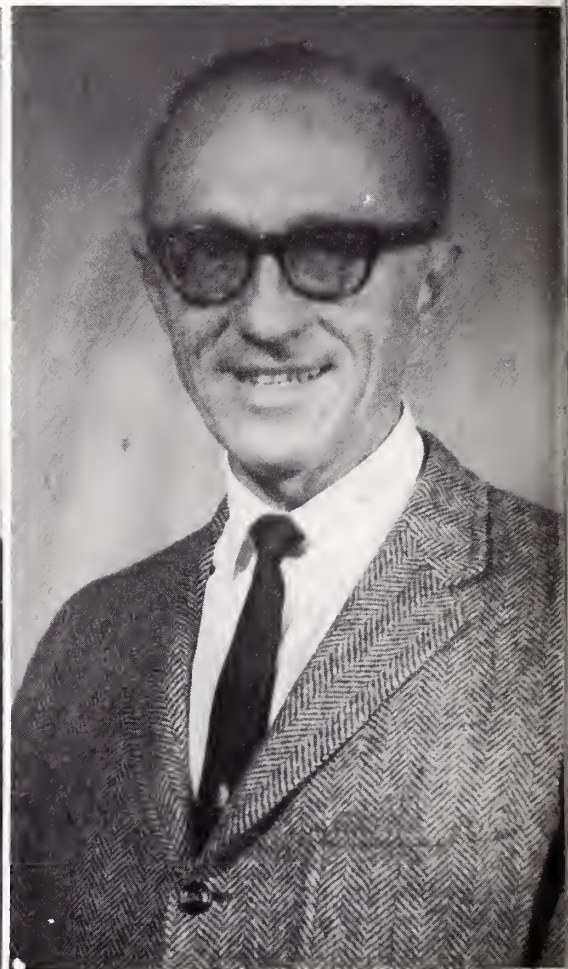

J. Cecil Haussler, Ph.D.
Professor

Kenneth Richards, B.D.
Instructor

John J. Robertson, M.Th.
Assistant Professor

Sociology Anthropology

Students interested in social welfare, corrections, and related fields, whether preparing for research or teaching, are offered a B.A. degree in Sociology by the department. An inter-departmental major is also available leading to a B.A. degree in Sociology-Psychology.

Robert V. Westerhout, B.A.
Instructor

John W. Elick, M.A.

All right!
Who stepped on my bifocals?

Don't worry about your invention, Mr. Franklin.

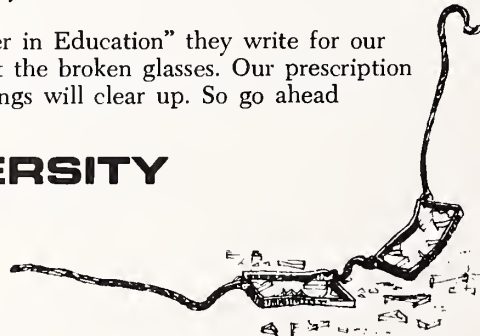

Take a look, with or without your bifocals—you'll be surprised. We know quite well the Franklin enthusiasm for the arts and sciences, but you should know a thing or two about us. It's our business helping people see better, too. An education at Andrews improves one's vision bifocally—in the now and for the future. But we go even further than that. With both a local and a worldwide view we train people to see themselves better (you might call it insight), and they in turn help others (we call it foresight). So we salute you, Ben; your passion for human betterment inspires us. Thus we are committed to excellence as reflected in • A qualified and devoted faculty • A Christian fraternity of scholars • Research in depth • Graduate degrees in Biological Science, Business Administration, Chemistry, Education, English, French, History and Political Science, Home Economics, Mathematics, Music, Physics, Religion, and Speech • Opportunities for Christian service • Systematic preparation for vocations and professions.

When people want to see "Something Better in Education" they write for our Bulletin, free for the asking. So, Ben, forget the broken glasses. Our prescription for better vision is highly personalized. Things will clear up. So go ahead and smile.

WHAT IS A MEDICAL CENTER?

PEOPLE caring for PEOPLE — this is a Medical Center. But it takes one of the most sophisticated — and dedicated — teams that can be trained to do the job.

It needs people — educated, well-trained people who sense the thrill of pitching in to help.

The sophistication of modern business! The dedication of willing service! The stimulation of learning! All these elements are found at the White Memorial Medical Center.
